THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

NEARLY every paper has published a cut of Mrs. Chadwick, but not one of them gives her a face sufficiently attractive to have won her such a fortune unless a sucker is born every minute in her circle of action.

THE principal effect of Senator Platt's bill to cut down the representation of the South has been to get himself laughed at with little compensatory hope that the bill will become a law.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS' advice to democrats is to "sit still, saw wood and say nothing." The fact of the business is, like the boy the calf ran over, the democrat really have nothing to say.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

YESTERDAY'S court was about the meanest Stanford ever had. The weather was too bad for many to venture out and the few who came were seemingly not on business bent.

HENRY SEXTON, Kentucky's greatest guitar player, will take a leading part in Miss Lewis' entertainment at Walton's Opera House Friday night, next, 10th. Hear him.

MR. SAM E. LACEY, of Gallatin, Tenn., sold yesterday to J. S. Owsley, Jr., the residence on Logan Avenue occupied by the latter gentleman for $2,360.50. He sold the vacant lot adjoining to J. A. Allen for $500.

NEWS from comes Ponce City, O. T. that George S. Shelby, formerly of this county, killed a man named John Porter. We are glad to state that it was a case of justifiable homicide and that he was acquitted at his examining trial.

SAW MILL FOR SALE.—I have a complete saw mill, running now and in good order, for sale—25 horse power boiler and engine. Will sell at a bargain. Will take small cash payments and balance I will take in sawing. J. L. Johnson, Agt., Kingsville, Ky.

THE ladies of the Baptist church will give a Social at the parsonage Thursday evening, to which all their friends are cordially invited. No refreshments will be served, but delicious home-made candy will be on sale. The portraits of a number of our well-known citizens will also be on exhibition.

THE will of Mrs. Aaron Ball offered for probate yesterday gives some money to charities and the rest of her property to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hammond, of Hubble. Mr. Hammond and wife had been staunch friends of the deceased and had helped her many times when assistance was needed. She showed her gratitude by remembering them assiduously as she could.

THE entertainment to be given at Walton's Opera House next Friday evening, 10th, by Miss Margaret Lewis and her class, assisted by Prof. Henry Saxton, of Lexington, promises to be one of the most delightful ones in the history of Stanford's playhouse. A glance at the program printed elsewhere will convince you that a treat is in store and if you would show your good judgment you will go and insist on your friends doing likewise.

NEWS reached here this morning that Miss Maude Varnon, daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. E. Varnon, died at Hendersonville, N. C., at 8 o'clock last night of consumption. She was a bright, pretty child and it is indeed sad that one so full of promise as she was should have been called hence so early in life. She was very bright in her studies and a great favorite with her classmates, and especially was she beloved by her aunts and great-aunt, who with her devoted parents did all in their power to render her closing days peaceful and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Varnon will arrive with the remains to-morrow morning and the burial will occur sometime during the day.

ROBINSON.—A good mother went to her reward when Mrs. W. Porter Robinson breathed her last at 3 o'clock this morning. She had been ill a long time of a complication of troubles and prepared to meet her Maker as she was, death must have been a sweet relief to her. Mrs. Robinson was 49 years old and leaves beside her husband, four children—Misses Louie and Katherine and Messrs. Weed and Will Robinson and an aged mother, Mrs. N. J. Stone. She was a good woman, a consistent member of the Baptist church and her death has caused regret wherever she was known. At the home at 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon Rev. O. M. Huey will preach her funeral, after which all that is left of the fond wife and devoted mother will be interred in the Goshen graveyard.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The First Magisterial District Teachers' Association was held in the auditorium of the Graded School building on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 10. In the absence of County Supt. Singleton Mr. J. L. Bosley presided. Miss Helen G. Madara was elected secretary pro tem. In the absence of Miss Stella McClary, the permanent secretary. The session was opened with prayer by Dr. Wm. Shelton. The association then sang "Heave Out the Life Line." An excellent paper was then read by Miss Bryson, of the High School, subject—Has the Busy Teacher Time For Self Culture? Many valuable hints were offered by which the "accraps" of time might be used to great advantage. A beautiful duet was then rendered by Miss Mary Moore Raney and her music teacher, Mrs. Ernest Carter. Miss Annie McKee, teacher of the 5th grade, then read a very instructive paper, subject—The Use of Pictures in Primary Work. She emphasized the importance of cultivating the faculties of form and beauty. The picture, she also claimed, was an aid to memory. Miss Hattie Rice, of the 6th grade, recited with credit to herself and to the delight of the audience, "The Inventor's Wife." Miss Minnie Sine rendered a solo, eliciting most enthusiastic applause. Mrs. Henry Phillips, of the 3d grade, read a paper, subject—What is Education? She drew a clear distinction between learning and education, contending that the former was the possession of the fruits of the latter; to educate people properly is to train the mind for the rapid and accurate acquisition of learning. Helen Beasley then gave a vocal solo, "Tessie." Dr. Shelton read a comprehensive dissertation on Literature for Teachers. In the course of his discussion he pointed out the character of reading best adapted to broaden our views. The doctor in his address gave the teachers much food for thought and they are under deep obligations for his inspiration. Russell Brown, in characteristic style, gave "I've Got to go to School." Mr. J. L. Bosley delivered an address on the subject of "The Universal Teacher," which was greatly enjoyed by all. Miss Georgia Lewis gave a talk on the Rational Ward System for Primary grades. The system was illustrated on the blackboard by Miss Annie McKinney. The Association sang "God be With You 'till we Meet Again," and after benediction by Dr. Shelton, adjourned sine die.

Open Letter to Mr. Hill.

MR. T. J. HILL, SR., Dear Sir—Rather than file grounds for a contest, well knowing that we both have possibly voted illegal voters, I ask a recount by the committee of the ballots voted in the primary of Dec. 3rd, and realizing that three of the committee are related to one of my deputies, I further ask that the three be not recognized and that they do not attend the meeting of the committee, should my request be granted and the ballots counted. I do this because there is a feeling among my friends that there may have possibly been mistakes made in the count by the election officers in the various precincts, charging no one with fraud or dishonesty. I ask this in behalf of the democratic party as well as in my own interest. If the committee should make the count and decide that I have been defeated, I shall appeal to all my friends to help elect you.

Very Truly,

GEO. W. DEBORD.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Miss Dora Floyd died at Eubanks of typhoid fever, after a lingering illness. Marion Milton, night watchman, was killed by falling slate at Middlesboro. The Boyle county court-house has a janitor who is paid out of the public funds.

A child of Wm. Mercer, of near Mill Springs, was burned to death at its home.

Horace A. Thompson fell down a flight of steps at Middlesboro and received probably fatal injuries.

PROHIBITION GAINS.—Lincoln county gives 169 votes against 72 for State ticket last year. Four years ago Kentucky gave 3,783 for Woolley by 6,609 this year for Swallow. Illinois gave Woolley 17,623, Swallow 35,294 and sends 3 prohibitionists to the Legislature with three others defeated by a close margin. Indiana gave Woolley 13,718 and 23,819 for Swallow. Ohio gave Woolley 10,203 and 19,198 for Swallow.

A. W. CARPENTER.

In the Nan Patterson trial Monday Justice Davis rebuked a New York paper for publishing interviews with wives of the jurors. A human skeleton was introduced to show the course of the bullet that killed Caesar Young.

The grand jury of Cuyahoga county, O., returned two indictments against Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick. Each indictment contains two counts—one of forgery and one of uttering forged paper.

Two Negro men, one named Wm. Sebastian, the other unknown, are dead near Paint Lick, Garrard county, as the result of a fight there Saturday night. Adam Jouett, of Harrison county, was shot and killed by his son, Joseph Jouett, who claims that he fired to save his own life.

At a meeting of tobacco growers, President Hawkins reported that the success of the independent movement is now assured.

Wade Skidmore, superintendent of schools of Harlan county, is dead.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c. at Penny's drug store.

OTTENHEIM.

Mary Grayson was seriously burned a few days ago by her clothes catching fire from the grate.

Colliers & Hunt, who have been drilling a well for Henry James, have struck water at 26 feet.

Some of our friends are complimenting W. S. Burch for running such a race as he did and having to run on crutches.

White & Davis are both very small men, but from the amount of goods they give for $1 they appear to have enormous hearts. Their motto is "live and let live."

Miss Emily Schanzenbach is preparing to go to Cleveland, O., to visit her sister. Joe Marshbanks, of Garrard, is assisting the James brothers strip and grade tobacco.

Garley James broke the record last week in moving three different times in one week, but the last move he made he was caught in that snow storm. Now he says he don't think he will move any more for 12 months.

Bert Kidd gave a social candy party Wednesday night in honor of William Chandler. Ephraim James and Hiram Kidd handled the musical instruments while Rube Adams and Bryant Plummer had a dancing contest and it would have made any clog dancer ashamed of himself to see how they handled their feet.

Here and There.

The President announces that Morton will remain in the Cabinet. Conner will be ambassador to Mexico.

The famous Olympian Springs property in Bath county has been sold to Attorney Thomas P. Forman, of Lexington, for $16,000.

The widow of the former warden of the Ohio penitentiary declares that Mrs. Chadwick is "Madame Devere," who was a convict.

William B. O. Dawson, the republican governor-elect of West Virginia, is 50 years old, and began life as a printer, then became an editor and is now a lawyer.

According to estimates made in Cleveland by those who are familiar with the estate of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, her creditors will receive about one and one-half mills on the dollar.

The custom of marrying girls when they are mere children of nine or 10 years is increasing rather than decreasing in Bengal and other parts of India. The resulting racial degenerations becoming so obvious that laws have been passed in several regions forbidding the marriage of girls under 14.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

WILLIE DARST KILLED.—Willie P. Darst fell from a train he was working on near Enoit, B. C., and was instantly killed. His parents were notified by telegram yesterday morning and the remains will arrive for burial the last of the week. Mr. Darst was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Darst, was 26 years old and had been a member of the Methodist church since he was a mere boy. He was a bright, industrious and clever young man and his untimely death is greatly regretted by the legion of friends he leaves. Mr. Darst did valiant service for the U. S. in the Philippines, but returned to his home a few years ago and began work on the Kentucky Central. He went West some months since with the expectation of taking up a claim and failing, secured a situation on the Northern Pacific. The sad news almost crushed his homefolks and great sympathy is felt for them in their dark hour. The devotion of his only sister to him was beautiful indeed and now that he has been so suddenly taken away, her grief knows no bounds. LATER.—On account of the body being badly mangled it has been decided to bury Mr. Darst at Greenwood, B. C.

THE burning out of a chimney of Mr. W. M. Bright's home yesterday made many think the house was on fire and the alarm was sounded. The fire company responded quickly, but before the "ladders" got half way they were informed that their services were not needed.

DEMOCRATS of Lincoln county are all torn up for the present over the late primary election.—Somerset Journal. Wrong you are. A little soreness, only, and that will disappear before 1905 puts in its appearance. Our democrats are democrats of the right sort and are always in line when a fight against the enemy is to be made.

THE Christmas opening at W. B. McRoberts' drug store drew a good crowd Friday night, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The store was a thing of beauty and the taste with which the Xmas trinkets were displayed was the subject of much favorable comment. Jesse Hays' orchestra furnished the sweetest of music for the occasion.

SMITH.—Mrs. D. J. Smith died at her home near Crab Orchard Friday of typhoid fever, aged about 40. A husband and six small children are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and kind and indulgent mother. The remains were interred in Madison county, the former home of the deceased. Mrs. Smith was a devout member of the Baptist church.

HAMILTON.—Mr. Waverly Hamilton died at the home of Col. W. H. Dudderar at 5:30 Saturday afternoon of emphysema of the lungs with gall-stone complication, aged 47 to a day, having died on the anniversary of his birth. He was a son of Mr. Isaac Hamilton, and like his father, was a straight forward, honorable man. He is survived by a wife, who is a daughter of Col. Dudderar, his father mentioned above, a brother, Mr. D. R. Hamilton, of Louisville, and a sister, Mrs. M. L. Ingram, of Erin, Tenn. Mr. Hamilton had been connected with the L. & N. for many years and that great corporation numbered him among its best men. He was thoroughly reliable and the company's interests were never neglected by him. It mattered not what happened. He was equally as true a friend as he was a loyal employee. Mr. Hamilton was yard master at Henderson for several years and came home for treatment of the stomach, which gave him much trouble. He was thought to be progressing nicely, when suddenly his fatal illness came. His suffering was intense while it lasted, but it was soon all over and now all that is mortal of the kind husband, true friend and good citizen lies buried in Buffalo Cemetery. Dr. William Shelton preached a most appropriate funeral sermon yesterday morning, after which the Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member, took charge of the remains and consigned them to mother earth in the presence of a large concourse of friends. May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb help the widow in her distress and make her to soon realize that her loss is her husband's eternal gain.
